

ACADEMIC ROADMAP
Speech- Language Pathology – MSED

First Year

FALL SEMESTER
Course Title	Catalog Number
Clinical Methods	SLP 501
Neural Processes of Communication	SLP 511
Diagnostic Principles and Procedures and Extended Applications in Communication Sciences and Disorders	SLP 516 and SLP 518
Clinical Practicum	SLP 515
Evaluation and Treatment of Phonological Disorders	SLP 610

SPRING SEMESTER
Course Title	Catalog Number
Acquired Language Disorders	SLP 623
Neuromotor Speech Disorders Across the Life Span	SLP 608
Augmentative and Alternative Communication	SLP 621
Language Disorders: Birth to Age 5	SLP 541
Clinical Practicum	SLP 515

JANUARY TERM
Course Title	Catalog Number
Fluency Disorders	SLP 606

SUMMER TERM
Course Title	Catalog Number
Clinical Practicum	SLP 515

Second Year

FALL SEMESTER
Course Title	Catalog Number
Disorders of Voice and Resonance (8 weeks)	SLP 609
Dysphagia Across the Life Span (8 weeks)	SLP 607
Research Methods in Speech Language Pathology (8 weeks)	SLP 580
Language Disorders of School-Aged Individuals	SLP 622
Externship in Communication Disorders OR Clinical Practicum in an Educational Setting	SLP 611 OR SLP 505

SPRING SEMESTER
Course Title	Catalog Number
Contemporary Issues in Clinical Interactions: Families and Culture	SLP 605
Advanced Topics and Issues in Communication Sciences and Disorders* or Master's Project	SLP 625 or SLP 690
Externship in Communication Disorders OR Clinical Practicum in an Educational Setting	SLP 611 OR SLP 505
Clinical Practicum	SLP 515

Notes: *Advanced Topics and Issues in Communication Sciences and disorders (SLP 625) is required for students who do not elect to complete a Master's project

Additional coursework that may be needed: EXE100, SPF202, SPF302, SLP424, a Statistics, a Chemistry or Physics and a Biology class. Official transcripts will be reviewed to determine individual needs.